

Special Seminar

Recent Trends in Global Trade and Investment

-A New Stage of (De) Globalization?

“JETRO世界貿易投資報告からみるグローバル化の姿”

Speaker:

Yoko ASUYAMA
Deputy Director, International Economy
Division, Overseas Research Department
Japan External Trade Organization(JETRO)

The aim of this lecture:

To understand the recent trends in global trade and investment.
The seminar overviews the history of globalization (trade and FDI), then focuses on recent trends in globalization. In particular, it focuses on recent slower pace of globalization, rising trade tensions and protectionism, and weakening of the multilateral trading systems. The seminar also focuses a new stage of globalization such as “digital trade” and “digital-related FDI.” Most of the presentation material will be based on “JETRO Global Trade and Investment Report” (2018 and 2017).

DATE

October 23th
Tuesday
16:20-17:50

Language

English

Target

Students, Faculty members

Note

This lecture is part of GPEM program,
“International Economics” by Prof.Nagayasu.

Venue

Sendai-Shi,Aoba-Ku. Kawauchi. 27-1
Kawachi Campus
Seminar Rm 401

Japan External Trade Organization (JETRO),
Graduate School of Economics and Management, Tohoku University
Head Office of Enterprise Partnerships, Tohoku University

Contact

Ayaka MORI, Head Office of Enterprise Partnerships, Tohoku University
TEL.022-795-5269