

Notes:

Each speaker has 30 minutes for presentation and 20 minutes for discussion.
 All the speakers are invited to the reception on March 2 and the lunch on March 3.

Venue: Espace Hall on the second floor of Katahira Kitamon Commons on Katahira Campus (A01 on the map)

URL of the https://www.tohoku.ac.jp/japanese/profile/campus/01/katahira/katahira_map.pdf

The nearest subway station is Aoba-dori Ichibancho Station.

2019/3/2	Name	Title
13:00-13:10	Yoshimichi Sato	Opening remarks
13:10-14:00	Louis Chauvel	On the way to extreme global inequalities: how income and wealth research highlights the challenges for the 21st century?
14:00-14:50	Simon Mohun	Inequality, Money Markets and Crisis
14:50-15:10	Break
15:10-16:00	Chiaki Moriguchi	Did Japan become an unequal society? Japan's income disparity in a comparative historical perspective
16:00-16:50	Chunling Li	Class and generational differences in national identity among Chinese population
16:50-17:40	Kwang-Yeong Shin	The Dynamics of Income and Wealth in the Post-crisis period in South Korea
18:00	Reception	At Restaurant Hagi on the second floor of Kahahira Kitamon Commons
2019/3/3
10:00-10:50	Guido Erreygers	Defining and measuring health poverty
10:50-11:40	Jun Matsuyama	Child Poverty in Japan from a Multidimensional Perspective
11:40-13:00	Lunch	At Cerisier on the second floor of Kahahira Kitamon Commons
13:00-13:50	Simon Marginson	High participation systems of higher education: The growing obstacles to strategies of social equalisation
13:50-14:40	Hirohisa Takenoshita	Inequality in access to housing in Japan: Wealth inequality and the role of family background
14:40-14:50	Kenji Mori	Closing remarks